3 ELECTION OF DEPUTY GENERAL SECRETARY

David Kennedy was the only nominee for the above post. After being properly proposed and seconded, he was duly elected into the post.

4 LEGAL ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE

The Committee was informed that since the last JCC meeting there had been 20 new cases; 11 FAI cases (57-14 to 66/14) and (03-15), four RTA cases (56-14, 01-15, 04-15, 05-15), one injury on duties case (54-14), one defamation case (06-15), one conduct case (02-15) and two actions against Police Scotland (55-14 and 07-15). A further one file was rejected.

The Chairman gave thanks to Rab for all the work he had done in relation to the legal advice and assistance scheme during his time as Deputy General Secretary.

5 PNB

The General Secretary told the Committee that the last meeting of PNB was held on 4 February in Edinburgh. John Randall, Independent Secretariat had retired and a replacement was currently being sought. There was a possibility that an appointment could not be made before the UK elections even if a suitable candidate is identified. In such an event the PNB constitution permits the body to regulate its own proceedings and a temporary Chair (from either side) could be appointed in the interim.

He reported the PNB was considering the issue of exigencies of duty and both sides had agreed to work together to produce a list of examples of what was, and what was not an exigency of duty. He also reported that the Scottish Government wished to draft a determination on the Commonwealth Games allowance and that this would be done by an exchange of correspondence. He also said the Government was looking to redraft the arrangements for travel allowances.

The General Secretary said that the Staff Side had been considering the 2015 police pay claim and had taken into consideration claims made elsewhere in the UK and average pay claims in the public and private sectors. He said he had put the Official Side on notice that he would be submitting a claim based on some of these factors and the Official Side had responded with statements on their negotiating principles which had included public sector pay generally and the Equality Act amongst other things.

He reported that the Equality issues previously advised had now been progressed through the Equality Working Group, chaired by the SPF Vice Chairman Graeme Ednie. The General Secretary had written to the Minister for Youth, Employment and Women highlighting concern regarding maternity provisions.

6 PENSIONS

The General Secretary said that members were obviously concerned about the 1st April implementation date of the Career Average Related Earnings (CARE) Scheme. He said that some useful information for members had been prepared by the Scottish Public Pensions Agency (SPPA) which should be published shortly. He said the consultation on the new regulations had been completed but due to delays at the Home Office it was unlikely that the initially laid down timescales would be met.

7 SCOTTISH POLICE CONSULTATIVE FORUM

It was reported that the last meeting of this group was held in Edinburgh on 4 February. At this meeting Pathways to Policing, the PNAC Assessment Course and the Strategic Command Course, and working time for inspectors and superintendents were discussed. The General Secretary advised that despite assurances, no meeting had taken place to discuss the latter issue within the Police Service of Scotland.

8 SCOTTISH POLICE AUTHORITY (SPA)

The General Secretary reported that he had been unable to attend the last meeting and that Malcolm Macdonald had attended in his place. Malcolm gave a brief report on the proceedings.

9 SCOTTISH POLICE BUDGET & FINANCE

The General Secretary reported that the SPF had intended to get economic analysis carried out before the Referendum but it was not done until afterwards. The findings would be presented at the SPF Annual Conference in April but could best be summarised as not providing an encouraging outlook.

12 FINANCE STANDING COMMITTEE (FSC)

- The FSC recommends to the JCC that members' subscription to the Voluntary Fund be increased by 13p per member per week.
- The FSC recommends to the JCC that the question of remuneration of the principal office bearers is considered separately from the examination of this for other office bearers.
- The FSC recommends to the JCC that all office bearers, with the exception of the four principal office bearers be paid the same.
- The FSC recommends to the JCC that the SPF disburses costs equivalent to the 75th percentile of the market rate for the independent valuation of the roles.

The General Secretary gave a presentation from the Independent Mercers report. The report made no recommendations but presented details on the market rates for comparable roles. The Meeting noted that the recommendations had been developed taking cognisance of the report's contents.

The SPF costs to be disbursed on the equivalence of the 75th percentile of the market rate is £180,285.

After a lengthy discussion during which counter proposals supporting both increases and decreases from the recommendations were also discussed and defeated, the JCC supported the recommendations.
