Nominations received out with these times will not be accepted.

Candidates must be nominated and seconded by officers of the same rank and within that electoral constituency for which the vacancy exists.

All nominations must be emailed to david.ross@spf.org.uk. No other form of nomination is acceptable. Nominations must include the details (including contact details for verification purposes) of the candidate(s) and of the proposer(s) and seconder(s).

In the event no candidate is forthcoming from within the electoral constituency, a candidate of the appropriate rank may stand provided (s)he is nominated and seconded by officers of the same rank WITHIN the electoral constituency. Such nominations must be received within the nomination period and will only become valid in the event that the first condition laid out in this paragraph is met.

Non-subscribing members may not stand for election, nominate or second any candidate.

In the event the number of nominations does not exceed the number of vacancies at the close of the nomination week, the candidate(s) will immediately be appointed as a representative.

Where the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies, any election(s) will take place at a time and in a manner determined by the General Secretary.

Yours sincerely
