Dear Mrs Hendren

Welfare and Wellbeing Survey Focus Groups

I am writing to thank you and your management team for the assistance given to the researchers from Carleton University who attended in G division on the 11th and 14th October. I am particularly grateful to Inspector Gerry Bryceland who went out of his way to organise the venues and to arrange for officers to be free to attend and take part.

The researchers would like to pass on their thanks to the officers who took part in the focus groups. They commented on the enthusiasm and professionalism of the participants.

Yours faithfully

Paul Connelly
