

Morton Fraser Lawyers

Family Law Discount for Scottish Police Federation Members

Morton Fraser's family law team is one of the largest, most experienced and most consistently highly-rated teams in Scotland. We have the strength-in-depth to deal with the full range of issues which family law cases can give rise to. We have offices in Edinburgh and Glasgow.

Based in Edinburgh and Glasgow, Morton Fraser is a thriving, independent, top ten Scottish law firm. Clarity is central to our role as a trusted advisor. Clarity directs the way we communicate, informs the way we advise and ensures the total transparency of our charges. At Morton Fraser, we know you don't like receiving unexpected bills. We always want you to understand what we'll be doing for you, how much it will cost, and why.

We offer a fixed fee package for an initial meeting with one of our solicitors at £265 plus VAT. This meeting should provide you with an overview of your legal position and the process which lies ahead. You should leave our initial meeting clearer about the options open to you, what needs to be done next, and armed with clear and helpful information.

We provide a 10% discount on our hourly charge out rates for all Scottish Police Federation members. To set up an appointment please contact Anna Maitles on 0141 274 1133.
